1. Welcome
2. Apologies
3. Previous minutes approved
 - i. JC provided GFPP Charter launch Feedback. See attached documents.
4.
 - a. Individual/organisational representation (DS)
 - i. Following lengthy discussion, agreed that separate meeting to be had to discuss membership, wider organisational engagement and whether a structure similar to that in Bristol is adopted, with the Bristol Food Network seeking to deliver on certain elements of the strategic Bristol Food Policy Council
 - ii. MW to extend invite to Cordia representative
 - b. Wider organisational engagement, including Poverty Leadership Panel (DB)
 - i. JM to attend meetings, representing GFPP and as part of own work at GCPH.

- c. Glasgow Allotments Group (IS)
 - i. As 3.a.i, to be discussed at separate meeting
 - ii. IS - reported that he met with reps from GAG. Suggested that they will be invited to the Glasgow Community Food Network Conference (see item 7) and thereafter any sub-GFPP that would be related to their specific area of work
- 5. SFC Conference feedback (KH)
 - i. SFC Awards - a good way to get support and involvement from elected members. Wide agreement that entering for awards should be considered in future years.
- 6. Communications workshop feedback (MW)
 - i. DS to ask Emma and Donna to explore appropriate hashtags for twitter use
 - ii. MW to create communications toolkit, ready for early May
 - iii. DS to disable Facebook until there is capacity to resource effectively
 - iv. DS to create biography template and send to network members for upload to website
- 7. Glasgow Community Food Network Conference (JM)
 - i. Funding proposal discussed in January meeting has been granted by Scottish Government
 - ii. Funding to be used to host a Community Food Network (CFN) event on 3rd June 2016 with further details to be confirmed via email (see email from MW on 27/04) and invitations to be sent to all GFPP members.
 - iii. May be additional funding in further years to support a CFN in Glasgow but this would likely be directed to any further embryonic network
- 8. Working group updates
 - i. Food Poverty – as point 6
 - ii. Food Waste – CLPL session to be held with teachers with a number of schools in May, delivered by Zero Waste Scotland and Food for Life Scotland (Soil Association Scotland) to explore how food waste can be used as a curriculum resource.
 - iii. Food Economy – A number of restaurants have shown interest in working with GFPP.

9. Agree next meeting

- i. Doodle Poll to be disseminated for June meeting

10. AOB

a. Meeting frequency

- i. Agreed to increase frequency of meetings to every other month

b. Milan Pact – Glasgow as a signatory? (PR)

- i. KH to take to relevant department at GCC

c. JM working with three schools to explore a whole-school approach to food. DS to run workshop around the ethics of food. AM to liaise with JM as there is crossover with the work of Food for Life Scotland.

d. AM to extend invite to Chambers of Commerce representative to sit on GFPP
