

GFPP member bios

Name:	Ken Harris
Organisation:	Glasgow City Council
Job title:	Sustainable Development Officer
Relevant links:	www.glasgow.gov.uk
Briefly describe your experience as it relates to GFPP:	I have been involved with GFPP since its initiation and its participation in the Sustainable Food Cities network. Currently, responsible for the development of a Food Growing Strategy for the City of Glasgow. The ambition is to identify land that can be used for the cultivation of vegetables, fruit, herbs or flowers either by traditional growing methods or by newer forms or urban agriculture. We are also developing an online portal that collates land or spaces, suitable for some form of growing, and making this data available to community groups or individuals who want to grow!
What are your aspirations for GFPP:	To provide a focus for sustainable food ambitions and actions in Glasgow which includes: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Facilitating cross-sectoral discussion and joint working around the sustainable food agenda• Supporting funding/resource applications or initiatives that advance sustainable food progress in Glasgow• Raising awareness of current sustainable food initiatives whilst keeping Glaswegians informed of new campaigns or issues.