

GFPP member bios

Name:	Nigel Kerr
Organisation:	Glasgow City Council
Job title:	Group Manager, Environment and Parks Development
Relevant links:	www.glasgow.gov.uk
Briefly describe your experience as it relates to GFPP:	Over 30 year's experience in numerous fields within a local authority environment including environmental health, business innovation and parks development. Responsible for the strategic direction and delivery of parks and green space for Glasgow including the statutory requirement to produce a food growing strategy for the city. As a qualified Environmental Health Officer with detailed knowledge of soil quality can also provide expert input in terms of food quality, nutrition and safety.
What are your aspirations for GFPP:	To provide a focus for sustainable food ambitions and actions in Glasgow which includes: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Facilitating cross-sectoral discussion and joint working around the sustainable food agenda• Supporting funding/resource applications or initiatives that advance sustainable food progress in Glasgow• Raising awareness of current sustainable food initiatives whilst keeping Glaswegians informed of new campaigns or issues.